HOME MEMBER MINISTRY

Home Member Spotlight

Each week Emmanuel is featuring one of our treasured Home Members. This week the spotlight is on Martha Catha.

In past years during worship, Emmanuel friends could always spot Martha Catha sitting with Betty Janette or Billie and Evert Ryland. She was also a faithful member of Sue Bolton's Sunday School class. Although she is now unable to attend in person, Martha is still a proud and dedicated member of the Emmanuel family.

Born in Poland, LA, Martha moved to Alexandria in order to attend Bolton High School for her junior and senior years. She went on to attend and graduate from Northwestern State University, began her teaching career in Lake Charles, and returned to Northwestern 20 years later for graduate school. The last fourteen years of her career were spent teaching fourth grade at Nachman Elementary School.

Martha takes pride in her two daughters (Sarah, who lives in Florida, and Marina, who lives in Montana) and her two grandsons. A gentle spirit with a twinkly personality, she describes herself as both a cat lover and a garden devotee. Martha moved to Regency House in 2018 for rehabilitation following a stroke. Last February she relocated to an apartment in Regency's Assisted Living facility.

If you would like to connect with Martha through the mail, please contact Susan Cauley or Kate Murphy.

GRATITUDE

Thank you to our youth mission service at my home for yard work this summer. Thank you to Brandon Tubbs, Greg Carroll and Jay Purdy for leading our wonderful youth.

I worked in the church nursery with these youth when they were babies in our church nursery.

With love and appreciation,
Mary Manzano
