A Word from the Pastor

Prior to the retirement celebration in June, Susan Cauley and I discussed the possibility of her serving in a part-time capacity with our pastoral staff. We knew at that time that our staff would be stretched thin during a season of transition. Susan possesses many obvious gifts with music and ministry, but her gifts of pastoral care are remarkable. We made no definitive plans at that point, but we considered it a matter of prayer and discernment.

I'm very pleased to share the news with you that Susan will rejoin our staff in a part-time role as Associate Pastor for Congregational Care. Her responsibilities will be significantly reduced so that she and Jerry may continue to enjoy retirement together. Susan is scheduled to begin in this role on December 1.

PARENTS' NIGHT OUT

Sign up your child(ren) for PNO by contacting the church office by phone or email.

The Pilgrimage city changes the Family Life Center entrance and PNO procedures.

To enter/exit the Family Life Center: Use the glass side door next to the elevator. From Beauregard Street, enter through the gate, follow the hallway between the Family Life Center and the Pilgrimage storage area, then use the glass door next to the elevator to enter. That side door will be unlocked for drop-off only.

To pick up: Call the FLC staff at 442-1302 and they will meet you downstairs to open the glass door next to the elevator.

GRATITUDE

Dear Emmanuel family,
Thank you for the many generous expressions of blessing you offered during October as part of Pastor Appreciation Month. We treasure every note, every gift, every smile and every word of encouragement you have so freely and sincerely given. It is a joy and an honor to walk beside you in this ministry we share as servants of our Lord.

With deepest gratitude,
Chris Thacker and Brandon Tubbs
