GRATITUDE

Dear Emmanuel,

Wow! Awesome! Humbling! Invigorating! Overwhelmed! Thankfulness! These are just a few of the feelings we had during and after the Farewell Reception.

Kind and meaningful words spoken by dear friends lifted our hearts. Generous and surprising gifts touched our spirits. Emmanuel has been more than a place of work for us. You are friends and family who have walked beside us on the journey of faith. You have lived out the words of my favorite hymn We are Travelers On A Journey.

As we transit to another phase of our lives, Karen and I are strengthened by the experiences and memories we carry in our luggage. We know that deep friendships carry across time and distance.

We plan to return with our grandchildren to be with you at the Pilgrimage to Bethlehem in December. We want Payton and Declan to know what being church means both within the walls and beyond the walls.

Blessings to each and all of you! Amen.

Lee and Karen Weems

To All Friends and Family at Emmanuel Baptist Church,

I wanted to send you all my thanks for your prayers for myself, my husband Robert and my son Landon. I am presently doing well and pray that I will be stable. Again, God bless you all.
